

Bearprints for Success Campus Resources

WashU
Fall 2024

Our goal is to help you find success at WashU

We hope that this list of campus resources will help you as you find your place here at WashU. These resources were all discussed during your Bearprints class, but if you have any questions, you can always reach out to your instructor or email bearprints@wustl.edu.

Week 1: Finding Purpose

Center for Teaching and Learning

- <https://ctl.wustl.edu/learningcenter>
- Academic skills peer coaching, Peer-led Team Learning, Drop-in mentoring programs and more

Library Resources

- library.wustl.edu
- Information literacy, subject librarians, study rooms
- Many libraries on campus – find the location & subject that is best for you!

Timely Care & After Hours Support (virtual health care and mental health care)

- counseling.washu.edu/services-provided/timelycare-after-hours-support/
- Must be 18 years old

Week 2: Healthy Excellence

Your Professors

- They want to see you succeed!
- Do you know how to email your instructors?
- Take advantage of office hours!

Study Groups

- Peer-led Team Learning (PLTL) is run through The Center for Teaching & Learning ctl.wustl.eduLinks to an external site.

Mentors

- ResLife mentors: RAs, RCs, Faculty Fellows
- Students: Upperclassmen, teammates, your WUSAs

Week 3: Financial Literacy

Financial Aid at WashU: <https://financialaid.wustl.edu/>

WashU Student Financial Services Counseling Team

Max McKee

- Serving last names beginning with the letters A through E

Ariel Brown

- Serving last names beginning with the letters F through J

Danielle Casey

- Serving last names beginning with the letters K through P

Jennifer Powell

- Serving last names beginning with the letters Q through Z

Vicki Mueller

- Assistant Director of Student Financial Services

If students would like to reach someone immediately and in real time, SFS offers the opportunity to meet with counselors in person or via Zoom. For more information, visit financialaid.wustl.edu/contact-us/counselor-on-duty/

Week 4: Career Exploration

Center for Career Engagement

Danforth University Center 110 | careers@wustl.edu | 314-935-5930

The CCE offers:

- 1:1 career coaching & advising
 - In-person
 - Via phone
 - On Zoom
 - Drop-in (no appointment needed for quick questions)
- Small group career workshops · Career Communities
 - Links to an external site. -- you can join any Career Community at this link. The current Career Communities are:
 - Art, Design & Media
 - Business
 - Career Exploration
 - Government, Policy & Social Impact
 - Health Care & Sciences
 - Technology, Data & Engineering
- Self-assessment tools (MBTI, Strong Interest, Clifton Strengths)
- Online internship / job posting system o Handshake
 - Links to an external site. is our career management platform. On Handshake, you can:
 - Interview for jobs and internships on campus
 - Find career tips and Q&A's
 - Stay connected with peers and job-related news
 - Navigate upcoming employer events on campus
 - Register for career fairs and events
- Employer and alumni events (career fairs, company information sessions, alumni networking sessions, etc.)
- All upcoming WashU CCE events are listed on Canvas as well as on their website:
careers.washu.edu

Week 5: Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion

WashU Center for Diversity and Inclusion

Danforth University Center 150 and Women's Building 102 | cdi.washu.edu

Offices within the CDI include:

The Office for International Student Engagement (OISE)

- OISE designs educational programs to connect international students to the United States and the St. Louis region, creates campus opportunities to expand the U.S. based networks of students and fosters WashU peer student relationships.
- Located in Women's Building 102
- internationalstudents.washu.edu

The Spectrum Office designs educational programming that supports the LGBTQIA+ community, including recognition of various months, weeks and days designated for identities.

- Located in DUC 150
- spectrum.washu.edu

The Office for Religious Spiritual and Ethical Life (ORSEL)

- ORSEL serves students of any/no religious or philosophical background through connections to communities, support for religious/spiritual practices, increasing interfaith understanding and offering spiritual support.
- Located in DUC 150
- orsel.washu.edu

Dialogue Across Difference fosters communication and collaboration across sociocultural differences in the WashU community, including engaging across differences in identities and perspectives through dialogue and fostering healthy relationships through effective communication.

- DxD offers workshops and events throughout the year that prepare students to engage in dialogue across perspectives.
- DxD is also a one-credit hour, eight-week course available to all students.

Week 6: Leadership

University Leadership Resources for students:

- Directory of Campus Groups: WUGO
- WashU Student Union
- WUSA (WashU Student Associate) Peer Mentor Program
 - Peer mentor programs through Student Transitions
 - Apply to be a WUSA
- George and Carol Bauer Leaders Academy
 - Building purpose-driven leaders of character and capability
 - Offering 1:1 leadership coaching
- Leadership & Training through Campus Life

Check course listings for leadership classes, too!

Academic Success Resources

The Learning Center

- Drop-in mentoring programs
- Academic skills peer coaching
- Peer-Led Team Learning (PLTL)
- Matched Academic Mentoring

WashU Libraries

- The Danforth campus has seven libraries
- Subject librarians can support you in your research

Check with your professor and/or academic department website for old tests to use for practice

Week 7: Finding Connection

A copy of all questions answered in Bearprints can be found on the Bearprints website.

